Terms and Conditions of Agency Membership

1. Eligibility

Membership is open to independent insurance agencies licensed and in good standing in one or more of PIA Western Alliance's represented states. Applicants must operate independently of any single insurance carrier and agree to abide by these Terms and the PIA National Bylaws.

2. Dues, Billing, and Renewal

Annual dues are set by the PIA Western Alliance Board and billed upon enrollment and each anniversary thereafter. Dues are non-refundable and non-transferable. Membership renews automatically each year unless written notice of non-renewal is provided at least 30 days before the renewal date. Accounts more than 60 days past due are subject to suspension of member benefits. Any product or service where commissions are received will be suspended until renewal payment has been received.

3. Code of Conduct

Members agree to conduct business ethically and professionally, to comply with all applicable insurance laws and regulations, and to represent client interests honestly. Members shall not engage in conduct that discredits PIA Western Alliance, PIA National, or the independent agency system.

4. Use of Name, Logo, and Member Benefits

Members may reference their PIA membership and display the official PIA logo solely to promote their affiliation, in accordance with PIA National's brand guidelines. This right terminates immediately upon expiration, resignation, or termination of membership. Member benefits, discounts, and programs are extended solely for the member's own business use and may not be resold, shared, or extended to non-members.

5. Termination and Non-Renewal

PIA Western Alliance may suspend or terminate membership, with or without cause, for violation of these Terms, non-payment of dues, loss of licensure, or conduct detrimental to the Association. A member may resign at any time by written notice; dues already paid are non-refundable. Upon termination or non-renewal, all rights to member benefits and use of the PIA name and logo cease immediately.

6. Liability and Indemnification

PIA Western Alliance provides membership benefits, resources, and advocacy on an "as-is" basis and makes no warranties regarding outcomes. PIA Western Alliance, its officers, directors, and staff shall not be liable for any claims, losses, or damages arising from a member's business operations, use of member benefits, or reliance on Association resources. Each member agrees to indemnify and hold harmless PIA Western Alliance from claims arising out of the member's own acts or omissions.

By enrolling in or renewing membership, the agency acknowledges and agrees to these Terms and Conditions.
